A bed bug crawling on your children's clothes when away from home does not speak well of that home, but instead gives to your friends a lasting impression of neglect and carelessness in that home and is often whispered around among other friends of the family. Such unpleasant comment could have been avoided if you had used Cyrus Presto Killer for Bedbugs. The cost is only 25 cents and would have effectually cleaned the bed.

NAGEL BEGINS REFORM

TEN CLERKS LET GO, 100 RE-DUCED IN DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR.

Washington, July 13 .- Secretary Na Washington, July 13.—Secretary Nagel began his threatened reform yesterday in the Department of Commerce and Labor, over which he presides. He called ten of his delinquent clerk before him and "permitted them to resign." They did. One hundred subordinates who have been loafing on their jobs were summarily reduced in rank and pay, and one hundred others who have fairly good hundred others who have fairly good records behind them were jumped into the vacant positions, the unlucky and the lucky ones exchanging places. As a result of the first move of Mr. Nagel, there is mourning in many quarters and jubilation in others.

The reform is only begun, however. According to reports, the Immigration Service is to be finely combed by the Secretary, and a small squad of inefficients are to be cast out. It is intimated that one or more of the minor officials of this bureau will go in the general raid, but neither Secretary Nagel nor Assistant Secretary McHarg will discuss the matter.

SLASHING BOUTS BY LITTLE MEN

Phillie M'Govern and Young Goldman Box to a Draw - Wagner Gets it Over Coster.

Phil McGovern, Terry's brother, and Charile Goldman, another Brooklyn bantam, fought ten slashing rounds to a draw in Brooklyn last night. In another ten-round contest of equal importance, Joe Wagner, of New York, fought Joe Coster, of Brooklyn, to a standstill. At the end of this round Coster retired to his corner badly damaged and badly beaten. The two contests were to furnish principals for another bout which will decide an opponent for Monte Attell in a battle for the bantamweight cham-pionship of the world. Both of the bouts were of the slambang order. In the McGovern-Goldman contest the blows rained so fast at times that it was difficult to tell who landed them. McGovern easily outboxed his adver-sary in the earlier rounds of their bout, but toward the end Goldman grew WAGNER BEATS COSTER Then Joe Wagner and Joe Coster came on. It was announced that both had weighed in under 115 pounds. They began cautiously when the bell started them on their ten-round journey.

Wagner began shifting in the first round and he kept up this style of milling throughout. He managed to land some racking punches for two rounds, but Coster had him solved in the third and made a better showing. Wagner got to his man again in the fourth, and had him groggy in this session. It swang around in Coster's favor in the next round and both had bloody mouths at the end of the round. bloody mouths at the end of the round.
